Guardsmen Will Parade Before Journey to Camp

Saturday will be National Guard Day.

In addition to marking the celebration of opening of the new Civic Center, members of Torrance's Company E, 132nd Armored Eng. Bn., will load up in trucks following their parade stint to leave for two weeks' summer training at Camp Roberts.

The two-week period will find members of the unit and other Guardsmen in Southern California's 40th Armored Division undergoing extensive field tests.

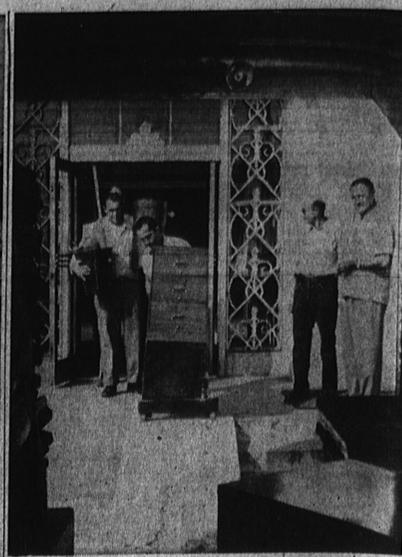

Parade Marchers

Capt. Douglas Horlander, CO, said last week the unit will march in the dedication parade, take part in other ceremonies, then enjoy a barbecue dinner before taking off for the camp. The trip will take about eight hours in the lumbering Army trucks.

The first week at Roberts will find the unit constructing many kinds of floating and fixed bridges, over which to

IT'S MOVING DAY . . . A huge Torrance Van S Storage Co. truck is backed to the front door of the city hall on Cravens Ave. and the long-awaited move to the new civic center is under way. Bible School Certificates

Certificates were awarded to approximately 75 students of the Seventh-day Adventist Vacation Bible School Thursday.

In a special "commencement" program at the Adventist Church at 1610 Acacia Ave., boys and girls who have been attending the Vacation Bible School each day for the past two weeks were given certificates, and parents were shown a display of some of the crafts and workbooks on which the children have been working. Among the objects displayed were glorified glass napkin holders with copper decoration, molded candles, grocery list holders, felt beanies, felt book markers, paper baskets and many other things.

Mrs. Bernice Moskos, director of the school, says, "the children have shown a wonderful spirit of cooperation."

Thieves Tote Off Register

Two thieves strolled into the Lomita Lumber Co., 1800 Pacific Coast Hwy., late Thursday and while one engaged a clerk in a sale, the other toted off the firm's cash register with $103 in it, David W. Wilkinson, 36, owner, reported to sheriff's deputies.

Wilkinson said the two came in and one of the suspects went with a clerk to see about the purchase of fence materials. The other remained in the office and when Wilkinson approached him to ask if he could help, the suspect said no. The pair then left and Wilkinson immediately noted the missing register.

Wilkinson's father, who also works at the firm, said the two had been in earlier in the week also.

PHOTO AGE

About 26 million families in the U.S. take upwards of 800 million photographs a year, an increasing number of them in full color.

THE SIDE DOOR, TOO . . .

Trucks were backed up to the side entrance to the old city hall as well as the front when crews began the huge task of moving the city's official records, property, and equipment to the new civic center yesterday. Here a pair of desks are being loaded onto the truck on El Prado.
